

Fernando's first love was country dancing, then he met his wife Mireya, who also shares her husband's passion for dance. As a young girl Mireya studied: Ballet, Folclorico, Tango, Flamenco and other Latin dances. Fernando has studied Latin ballroom dances and salsa, which he has taught for eighteen years. Together Fernando and Mireya have taught all levels of salsa dancing for sixteen years at The Dance Family Studio in Pasadena.

With decades of experience, talent and boundless enthusiasm for dance Fernando and Mireya share their passion for dancing and skills with others by hosting private dance parties at friends' homes. Teaching the bride a groom their first wedding dance and Quinceañeras.

For information on taking classes with Fernando and Mireya email royallychosen@gmail.com